VANITY FAIR

It has come to our attention that the article "Meanwhile, Back on Capitol Hill" in the December 2001 issue of Vanity Fair contains a mistaken identification: Senator George Allen (R-Va.) was not in fact the member of Congresss in conversation with Senate Appropriations Committeee staffer Ryan Thomas at the Capitol Grille as described on page 322. Vanity Fair regrets the error and plans to correct it in the February 2002 issue.
